BY GUS MALBERT.

Completing a week of successes varied only by one defeat, and that at the hands of the league's subway tenants, the Colts yesterday won as pretty an exhibition of pitching as has ever been unveiled before a park full of nuts, bugs and fair, within the memory of man. Lloyd Ramey was the particular hero for our crowd, while McCleary did nearly as noble service for the lady across the murky side of the James. The final count was Portsmouth, 1; Richmond, 2. There was just that tang in the air needed to keep the fellows on the jump all the while, for fear of untoward results if they allowed loosened muscles to grow taut in the chilly blasts. Everybody was hustling all of the time, and the result was a speedy exhibition requiring just one hour and twenty minutes to reach a conclusion and sending everybody home happy to an early supper, or dinner, depending entirely upon whether they carried mere wallets or the more heavily laden purse.

ONLY ONE OF THREE RUNS COUNTED

Of the three runs made during the battling, two should never have been chalked up. One of these two gift counters is credited to the Colts, and the other to the visitors. The Portsmouth tally was given away by Ramey, one of the two faults was caused by him being turned into a run by the Pirates. A sorry boot by Humpty (McElvaine, late of the Nashville club and earlier of the Brooklyn team, started the unearned run of the Colts. Aside from these two scores the game was well-nigh perfect. Ramey pitched as if his job depended upon it.

TIGERS TAKE FINAL GAME FROM GOOBERS

Roanoke Finds Pearson Rather Easy, Scoring Eleven Times on Eleven Hits.

Roanoke, Va., May 9.—Mills's Tigers made it two out of three for the series here this afternoon, defeating Petersburg 11 to 5. Mullin started in to do the work for the visitors, and was rebounded by the Buschinger and was relieved by Barnhart before he finished the fourth frame. Four of Petersburg's runs were scored off Mullin. Barnhart yielded but two hits in the five innings he worked. Pearson was on the mound for Petersburg. He was hit freely at times, and these safe ones, coupled with errors, netted Roanoke eleven runs on as many hits. Goally hit for four bases, this being the second home run of the season on the Roanoke grounds. The score:

MAKE MONEY V TO MEET DAVE MARTIN

Two Speedy Heavyweights Go to Finish at Academy Wednesday Night.

WINNER TO TACKLE ROLLER

Bout Is for Benefit of J. B. Trice, Injured Engineer—Interest Is Intense.

BY "REFREEE"

Listen, ye fans who say that you like wrestling—wrestling of the whirlwind, rip-and-tear kind—get set, for it's going to be handed to you Wednesday night with a vengeance when Dave Martin, of New England, and Mike Donnelly, of Ireland, mix it up in a battle for his life in the Memorial Hospital. The bout is for a good cause. A large part of the proceeds will be given to help defray the expenses of J. B. Trice, the railroad engineer who is making such a heroic fight for his life in the Memorial Hospital. Engineer Trice, so say the M. D.'s, need kick to cover that part of his body from which the skin was burned when he met with the injury. It requires money, so the promoters agreed to put on this match to help out in restoring to health, if possible, this game man, who is putting up such a wonderful struggle for life.

DONNELLY HAS GAINED HUNDREDS OF FRIENDS

So far as the match itself is concerned, put it down in the book as a red-letter event. Donnelly, through his clever work in disposing of Kervin, has gained hundreds of friends in the front, so far as popular regard is concerned. There are many who, after seeing him at work, are certain that he can throw any man in the ring. He would find it easy right in the front, so far as popular regard is concerned. There are many who, after seeing him at work, are certain that he can throw any man in the ring. He would find it easy right in the front, so far as popular regard is concerned. There are many who, after seeing him at work, are certain that he can throw any man in the ring. He would find it easy right in the front, so far as popular regard is concerned.

It goes without saying that Donnelly wants to win, and if careful training and hard work will bring about the result he has already won. However, there is a trifling obstacle in the way of his progress. Dave Martin isn't the kind of man to lose without the most wracking kind of struggle. Gus Costello, known as the rough house Italian, once thought that in Martin he would find an easy opponent. The Italian had something of a reputation as a bonebreaker, so Martin went after him from the jump, followed him all around the ring, and changed the complexion of the match.

Mr. Hart replying said that several thousands of years ago a wise and goodly man said it was more blessed to give than to receive, but that it was certain the author of the sage saying had never received as a gift a nice trap gun, or he would not have made such a remark. The next shot will be held Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

BANQUET LANDS FIRST IN CLAUBAUGH STAKE

Morris Entry Rewards Backers by Taking Race Without Serious Opposition.

Pimlico Race-Track, Md., May 9.—Before the largest crowd this ever assembled at the famous Pimlico track, A. H. Morris's famous silks finished first and second in the Claubaugh memorial, and in doing so recalled to old-timers the days when Morris's family were the biggest racing people of the country, and when such racers as Britton, Florin, Corrections and other racing stars made fame and money for the then owners of the old Morris Park race-track. The Claubaugh memorial is to Maryland racing what the Futurity is to New York, and so anxious was Morris to annex the cup he started three youngsters, Banquet, the winner, making his debut, but the clocking runner was so glowing that all the heavy bettors played the Morris trio. The banquet proved to be a morning glory by winning in a caater.

MANY ENTRIES EXPECTED FOR SECOND TRACK MEET

H. A. F. All-for-Glory Games Are Sure to Attract Large Fields.

SOME NEW EVENTS ADDED

No Cups or Medals, but Buttons Given by the Times-Dispatch Will Be Awarded.

Entry blanks are piling up fast for the second annual outdoor meet of the Richmond Amateur Athletic Federation to be held at Byrd Park next Saturday, beginning at 2:30 o'clock. Richmond College is after the Blues scalps, the Church Civic Association boys want to put another one over on the lads from McGill Union; Barton Heights claim they will show up the Highland Park lads; the Benedictine Cadets are laying for a chance to even up with the lads from McGuire's University School; the men from the First National Bank are remembering their defeat at the hands of the Life Insurance Company of Virginia athletes, while the Richmond Howitars have several scores to settle.

In the Junior events for boys under sixteen inches in height, the Y. M. C. A. McGuire's Benedictine and the C. C. A. will enter a scrappy bunch of youngsters who will go the limit to send their colors in at the head of the pack.

The mile run will bring a number of surprises to the front, and several runners are in the race. The 120-yard low hurdles is a new event for Richmond runners, and there is no telling who will finish first.

The 100-yard dash is bound to see the local records smashed all to pieces. The 220 and 440 will attract a large following, and here, too, there will be several surprises.

The half mile will be a thriller, as several of the local clubs have made it known that they were a number of men who are sure winners. The jumps and shot-put will all be very evenly contested, and here, too, there will be several surprises.

Several of the organizations that have recently joined the federation, and not mentioned above have a number of surprises to spring, and it is difficult to set a line on them, as their men have never competed in a track field, though there are a number of men who held college records in all the events to be run.

The second out-door meet bids fair to eclipse any event ever pulled off in this city. At least twenty of the twenty federated clubs will take part. The entry blank gives the following events:

For boys over seventeen years of age: 100, 220, 440 and 880-yard runs; 120-yard low hurdles; one-mile run; running high jump; running broad jump and 12-pound shot-put.

For boys under seventeen years and over 16 inches in height there are five events as follows: 50 and 100-yard runs; standing broad jump; running high and eight-pound shot-put. The points are: first, 5; second, 3; third, 1.

All entries must be in the hands of A. VanBuren, registrar, room 108 City Hall, not later than 3 o'clock to-morrow afternoon.

This is the second all-for-glory meet of the federation. Here will be no cups, medals or prizes, but all point winners will be presented with the handsome gold-enamel button, the gift of The Times-Dispatch. These buttons will be presented once a year at the out-door meet of the federation.

A complete list of all entries of the official program will be published in The Times-Dispatch next Friday, the day before the meet; also the judges and other officials.

COLUMBIA OARSMEN SHOW HEELS TO TIGER EIGHT

New Yorkers Take Lead at Start and Maintain It Until Finish.

Princeton, N. J., May 9.—Columbia University won the eight-oared shell race today, finishing a length and a half ahead of the Princeton crew. The University of Pennsylvania's eight finished third, three lengths behind the Tigers. Columbia's time was nine minutes 18 seconds.

The New York crew took the lead with the first dip of their oars and held it throughout. Princeton rowed a game race.

Getting away last the Tigers at the mile mark had gone into second place, while Pennsylvania rapidly falling behind.

Vivian Nickalls, the Pennsylvania coach, said his men lost some of their nerve before the race, when a team of horses, taking them in a bus to the boathouse, started to run away. Some of the Pennsylvania crew jumped from the vehicle, but none was hurt.

NINE ERRORS CAUSE DEFEAT OF AMHERST

Cambridge, Mass., May 9.—Nine errors by Amherst caused their defeat by Harvard in the overwhelming eight runs in the first inning.

TRAVIS WINS ANOTHER TOURNAMENT EASILY

Garden City, L. I., May 9.—Walter J. Travis won his second tournament of the season today, defeating Max H. Behr, of Baltusrol, 6 up and 4 to play, in the final round here. The wide margin of Travis's victory came as a distinct shock to those who had watched Behr's progress in the earlier rounds, though it was conceded from the beginning of today's match that the "old man" had the edge in that he was playing on his home course.

Behr, who has not appeared in tournaments of late, was decidedly off form, and after the first three holes the match was almost farcical. The cards:
Travis—Out, 535, 535, 544—23. In, 545—54.
Behr—Out, 544, 746, 654—45. In, 644—56.
(Bye holes not played.)

In the semifinal matches earlier in the day Travis defeated Dwight Hartbridge, 2 up and 3 to play, after the latter had led almost the entire way. Behr defeated D. H. McAlpin by 1 up, in the closest kind of match.

Pitcher Foxen, Southpaw, Reports

Pitcher Jim Foxen, late big leaguer, and still later with the Birmingham Club of the Southern Association, reported to Manager Ray Ryan yesterday that he was at work. When he is in condition there is no better southpaw in the business than Jim Foxen. While with the Phillies he hurled some wonderful games, and he promises to do the same thing for Ryan.

The addition of Foxen practically rounds out the Colts' pitching staff. Sloan, Grimes and Ramey will probably be the right-handers, while Foxen fills the need of a winning southpaw. While no announcement of releases was made last night, it is probable that somebody will go in a day or two.

WILLIAM AND MARY NOW LEADS RACE

By Defeating Randolph-Macon, Williamsburg School Greatly Improves Chances.

GARNETT IS REAL HERO

Pitches Masterful Ball, and Gets Splendid Support—Captain Newton Stars.

Williamsburg, Va., May 9.—Playing errorless ball and bunting hits, William and Mary blanked Randolph-Macon here this afternoon, 3 to 0.

The game was the hardest fought and most exciting witnessed on Cary field since the opening of the season. The Williamsburg team was in the lead from the start, and by far the one with William and Mary.

When the Spiders do hook up with the Loonies it will be the leaders of the league. The Williamsburg team has been picked to run away with the other teams in the Eastern Virginia League.

Several times the Jackets had things going their way, but Garnett, with the splendid support of his teammates, managed to keep the clean slate.

William and Mary started the big show when Tucker landed safe on the initial cast, being hit by Marston. The Williamsburgers were not discouraged, making two down. Peachy, looking over Marston's assortment, smashed out a driving hit to left. Through errors, he landed on third. Bob Newton comes.

With the grandstand wildly cheering, Bob Newton won fame by slugging out another hit, sending Captain Peachy across the rubber for the second time. Newton's drive sent a sea among the immortals by driving out a three-bagger. Newton, after having collided with the shortstop, stumbled home on Anderson's wild throw to Brown. The Williamsburgers were not discouraged, making two down. Peachy, looking over Marston's assortment, smashed out a driving hit to left. Through errors, he landed on third. Bob Newton comes.

PRINCETON GIVES YALE DRUBBING ON TRACK

New Haven, May 9.—Yale today gave Princeton the worst track drubbing in the history of the dual meets. The final score standing: Yale, 57.5 to 15.5 points. The meet was the third of the season, and the Princeton team was only one first in the mile run, in which the veteran MacKenzie nosed out Pol Poucher by a burst of speed down the home stretch.

Yale won all the points in the 100-yard dash, the 120-yard hurdles, the high and broad jumps and the hammer throw, and first and second in the two-mile run, pole vault and shot put.

Tommy Cornell and W. F. Potter showed far poorer form than their usual prowess. Cornell was the victor in the 440-yard race, but Potter was the winner of the 880-yard race. While clipping fifty seconds in winning the quarter-mile handily, Cook was the feature of the field events.

SPIDERS ARE PREPARING TO WIN FROM LOONIES

College Rooters Are Hopeful That Their Pets Show Reversal of Form.

FLANNAGAN SLATED TO PITCH

Southpaw All Groomed to Humble Visitors From William and Mary College.

Among the followers of Eastern Virginia collegiate baseball there is a great deal of speculation as to the outcome of the game here in Ross Street Park Tuesday afternoon between the Spiders and William and Mary. The Spiders have won two past performances of the two teams, the bout should be a case of easy meat for the Williamsburg team. They have now played four games, and of these have won three. They have so far beaten every team in the league, and suffered defeat only at the hands of the Yellow Jackets in Ashland.

For the Spiders, they have won but one game out of four, the team from Hampden-Sydney being their lone victory. The Spiders have just the opposite record held by the Loonies. But the future in baseball is a very hard thing to judge, and this may be readily understood when it is remembered that at the start of the season the Spiders looked to be the class aggregation of the league.

It is not at all impossible that the Spiders will take on a big race in these last two games, and by far the most favorable reversal of form both of them. That would let the locals finish with an average of .500, which is a very good thing for the Spiders to win the championship.

Prizes for the winner and for the runner-up, for the second, third and such other prizes as the number of defeated teams in each sixteen will be awarded by the Eastern Virginia League. These prizes will be given by the association.
